

Fungi Connections

Mycelium makes connections between trees and plants in the forest. These connections are how trees and plants talk to each other.

Use the cards on the following page to create your own forest. Print as many copies of the trees as you want. You can make a small forest or a big forest.

Build mycelium connections between all of your trees! Connect all of the trees with string, ribbon, or even trails of toys!

